RTD Light Rail

Light rail capacity will be increased to accommodate the concert crowd on C and E light rail lines which stop at the INVESCO Field at Mile High Station. Ticket holders should utilize the D, H or F light rail lines and transfer to the C or E lines at the I-25 & Broadway, Alameda, or 10th & Osage stations.

Ticket agents will be available at key stations. Ticketholders are encouraged to purchase round trip tickets at the initial boarding station to avoid post-concert lines and delays at ticket purchasing kiosks.

Taxi Service

Expanded availability of taxi service following the concert will be available on the South (stage end) of INVESCO Field at Mile High in Parking Lot A and also on the stadium's west side (Federal Boulevard).

Ticketing Information:

Tickets printed for the postponed June 12, 2010 date are valid for admission to the concert. Ticketmaster is the official ticket distributor for INVESCO Field at Mile High and the U2 360 Tour. Fans are urged not to purchase tickets from any unauthorized source due to the likelihood of fraudulent or invalid tickets being sold as legitimate tickets.

The INVESCO Field at Mile High ticket office is only able to provide assistance when tickets were purchased through Ticketmaster and only to the ticket purchaser of record with a valid photo I.D. Ticketholders are encouraged to address any ticket concerns as early as possible and prior to arrival at the stadium on the day of the show.
