

The Visitors Locker Room at Sports Authority Field at Mile High

offers guests a behind-the-scene look at how a professional football team really prepares for a big game. Guests enter the player's tunnel, which is a location only seen by players and coaches on game day. Customize the lockers with the names of your guests or add personalized jerseys to make the dream feel like a reality.

The Visitors Locker Room offers a creative backdrop for your event whether you are hosting a new product launch, sales kick off, customer appreciation event or a rehearsal dinner!

With direct access to the field, it is common for events in the Visitors Locker Room to incorporate field activities into the event. Whether a punt or pass competition guests enjoy the opportunity to be out on the field!
